

Marcos the Magician

A young Vienna boy, coming home, sees Nazi soldiers attacking his parents. He runs away, dirties himself, and becomes both a farm boy and -- slowly -- a strange magician. Years later he leaves, for the far off border of Switzerland. In this fearful, solitary project, he is helped by a mysterious older man, Mark the Magician. When they finally reach the Swiss border, Marek gives his life in order to allow Marcos, alone, to cross into safety
