

First Love

Love, as the hoary cliché holds, is a many-splendored thing: many-splendored, and multifaceted; a periapt to some, an Orloff Diamond to others. Within this volume, we assay to present this ubiquitous-this most basic-but most subtle and nuanced, of human emotions as we would any sacrosanct, dangerous relic. Follow us then into the world of nine authors, three men; six women, as they tingle and bleed for love.
