Or that which we admit with Regard to Force, upon what Pretence can we deny concerning Grace? If there are Queries, Disputes, Perplexities, Diversity of Notions and Opinions about the one, so there are about the other also: if we can form no precise distinct Idea of the one, so neither can we of the other. Ought we not therefore by a Parity of Reason to conclude, there may be divers true and useful Proportions concerning the one as well as the other? And that Grace may be an Object of our Faith, and influence our Life and Actions, as a Principle destructive of evil Habits and productive of good ones, although we cannot attain a distinct Idea of it, separate or abstracted from God the Author, from Man the Subject, and from Virtue and Piety its Effects? XL Shall we not admit the same Method of arguing, the same Rules of Logic, Reason, and good Sense to obtain in Things Spiritual and Things Corporeal, in Faith and Science? and shall we not use the same Candour, and make the same Allowances in examining the Revelations D I A L. of God and the Inventions of Men? For VII. ought I see, that Philosopher cannot be free from Bias and Prejudice, or be said to weigh Things in an equal Balance, who shall maintain the Doctrine of Force and reject that of Grace, who shall admit the abstract Idea of a Triangle, and at the same Time ridicule the Holy Trinity. But, however partial or prejudiced other Minute Philosophers might be, you have laid it down for a Maxim, that the same Logic, which obtains in other Matters, must be
