

Almost Paradise: Navy Hero Billy (Aloha Series Book 2)

She Wants Everything He Doesn't Think He Deserves

Owner of the Big Island Dive shop, former Navy Explosive Ordnance Disposal tech Billy Everett is going through the motions of living. Love, marriage and children are the last thing on his mind when a beautiful friend falls into his arms. Angela Carson's life is not unfolding according to plan. She's twelve years behind the curve in her search for love, marriage and babies. With her biological clock raising its ugly head, she never expects to meet Mr. Right in time. Is a friend in need enough to reveal the best things in life don't need a plan? More about the contemporary romance Aloha series: Chris Keniston's love of a good story and frustration with the end of a well-known author's romance best seller, drove her to pen her own works of romance and fiction. The popular beach read themes of small town and Hawaii beaches blended with the story of a single dad, lost love, and a surprise son have landed Aloha Texas, the first book in the series, on the Kindle top military list and made the contemporary romance novel a reader's choice. Almost Paradise is the fifth romance novel for Chris and the second book in the Aloha series. Continuing with the well-loved themes of Hawaii beaches and former military heroes, Almost Paradise explores love, marriage, babies, and life after war for a wounded hero. Currently working on the next book in the Aloha series, Chris is having fun bringing love, romance and a few surprises to the regulars at the Big Island Dive shop.
