

Down, Set, Hike

Down, Set, Hike. The game has started, the teams have taken the field, and the game plan has been set into motion. All that remains is for you to take up your position on the field and to put HIS plan into action.

The time for you to continue sitting on the sidelines watching the players compete has come and gone. GOD has called you into action and now is the time for you to answer HIS call on your life. It is time to stop attending church out of some misplaced sense of duty or purpose. No longer will it be acceptable for you to passively occupy that pew. It is time for you to reconnect to your first love, Jesus Christ. Real men get involved in the things in life that matter most, and there is nothing that is more critical to your health, the health of your family and the health of your church than your fully-committed involvement toward HIS purposes. Prepare to suit up for action as you once again discover that the game is on, the clock is ticking, and you are on the field with your hand in the dirt and grass as you eagerly await those three little words: Down, Set, Hike! Steve Morris coached varsity football in Texas for 15 years. Through many times of challenge, both in victory and in failure, Steve has always known that GOD has had a plan for him. Steve accepted Jesus Christ as his personal savior during the spring of 1972 in his hometown of Hobart, Oklahoma. Steve and his bride Karen live in McKinney, Texas. He is a frequent speaker at mens retreats and Sunday school classes.
