

Snatched from the Avatar (Descent Book 4)

Fully ensconced in Cha Mas world, Maya is determined to spend the rest of her life in India. Unaware that a supernatural battle of epic proportions is unfolding all about her, Maya is swept deeper and deeper into the life she has created. Hundreds of miles away, Mayas parents remain embattled and under siege by the forces of darkness. Their focus and determination faltering, they are forced to rely upon the supernatural world all the more. As the story draws to a close and the forces of good and evil are pitted against each other, Maya will have to make a choice. Will she choose rightly? Is there anyone who will come save her from herself and the pernicious evil that threatens to destroy her?
