

McLains Law

When children begin to go missing, Detective Connor McLain pursues every lead at his disposal. At least until Michele Easton comes to him with information she should not have. Although she claims the info had come to her in visions, Conner is skeptical. Until the threats begin arriving--then his suspicion is replaced with concern. Somehow Michele calls to every protective instinct he has. Michele had sworn shed never speak of her dreams again. But her fear for the missing children is compelling. At first Conner McLain typifies everything shed come to expect from the police. But she hadnt expected to entrust the man with her life. She hadnt expected to fall in love....
