

Living Without Limits

For decades, Deepak Chopra and Wayne Dyer have delighted and enlightened audiences with their popular books, lectures, and tapes. In Living Without Limits, these provocative thinkers share their wisdom before a live audience as they question and challenge one another on the following topics: How our thoughts affect all of humanity The power we have to heal ourselves of fatal diseases The negative impact of the media on our health How our beliefs and intentions create our experience The importance of quieting the inner dialogue
