

Luthers Works, Vol. 16: Lectures on Isaiah Chapters 1-39 (Luthers Works (Concordia))

Luthers Works: The American Edition, published by Concordia and Fortress Press between 1955 and 1986, comprises fifty-five volumes. These are a selection representing only about a third of Luthers works in the Latin and German of the standard Weimar Edition, not including the German Bible. Luther treats Isaiah and his message as one still relevant for modern times, in fact for all time. The lesson is that God in Jesus Christ comes to the rescue of Gods people in Gods own good time, just as God did to the nation and government of the Jews in Isaiahs time. Meanwhile, Gods people are to await Gods help in complete confidence and not rely on self-help and on alliances with other men. The great danger then and now, however, lies in humankinds rebellion against Gods way, for humankind is naturally impatient about waiting for God to do all things well. To Gods invitation that humankind find strength in quietness and in trust, humankind is always under temptation to respond: No, we will speed upon horses! Luther bids us learn from Isaiah that we are helped and protected by God as the people of Israel were and that we are also chastened like them when this is necessary. This volume contains lectures on Isaiah, chapters 1 through 39.
