A marriage of convenience is the perfect plan for New York museum curator Sydney Wainsbrook and Texas rancher Cole Erickson. Its a business transaction that will save her career and safeguard his familys traditions. After all, how hard can it be for Sydney to pretend to be in love with a sexy and charismatic cowboy? And Cole sure wont mind sharing his time--and maybe his bed?--with a fiery redhead from the city. So what if theyre complete strangers? So what if shes only interested in borrowing his familys heirloom jewel, the Thunderbolt of Texas? So what if they discover a secret that could blow the whole scheme apart? And what would happen if they actually managed to inconveniently fall for one another?
